Week 1

From Pastor Arlen:

Remember all of the things that you have to be thankful for today....

your family and friends.....

your health.....

your home.....

all of the countless blessings that God has given you over the years.

Let us pray together:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come.

Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory, forever and ever.

Amen.

Psalm 23: The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

² He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

³ He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

⁴ Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

⁵ Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

⁶ Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

MOVIES IN THE 1950s

Going to the cinema in the 1950s was a very popular activity.

Technicolor, wide screen and '3D' formats were launched to lure people away from television.

Big musicals, science fiction, westerns and gangster movies were all favourite genres.

In the USA and Australia, the 'drive in' outdoor cinema enabled people to watch films while sitting in their cars.

Nearly every town in Britain had at least one cinema. Cinemas showed a 'big picture' or main feature, as well as a shorter 'B movie', and newsreels, cartoons and documentaries.

Some big Hollywood stars of the 1950s included

- James Dean
- Marlon Brando
- Marilyn Monroe
- Humphrey Bogart
- James Stewart
- John Wayne
- Alan Ladd
- Doris Day
- Audrey Hepburn

Britain had a thriving film industry in the 1950s too. Some big British stars included:

- Trevor Howard
- Dirk Bogarde
- David Niven
- Diana Dors

Who was your favourite film star in the 1950s?

Reading the Paper

What did you do to mimic Mum or Dad?

Did you ever dress up in Mum or Dad's clothes?

What did you want to be when you grew up?

What imaginary games did you play?

Girls always wish to be grown-up like their mum, putting on their high-heeled shoes, evening dresses and bright red lipstick, pretending to be their mother or maybe a famous film star they adored.

Whilst boys often mimic their dads - sitting in the armchair with a newspaper, whether they could read or not, pretending to smoke a pipe - just like dad does! Or spend hours staring at their father as he shaves in the morning, copying him by squirting foam all over his face and pretending to shave.

Playing imaginary "grown up" roles is often a popular pastime for young children. Pretending to be a nurse or doctor and collecting teddy bears, dolls or action figures ready to be wrapped in bandages and given medicine. Or pretending to be a bus driver, lining up the dining room chairs to create the bus, sitting in the front at the make-believe steering wheel and calling "tickets please" as imaginary passengers boarded the bus.

Toys like play post offices, grocery shops or kitchens are fantastic for imaginary play and hours could be spent speaking to imaginary customers or cooking pretend cakes.
