Week 4

From Pastor Arlen:

Remember all of the things that you have to be thankful for today....

your family and friends.....

your health.....

all of the countless blessings that God has given you over the years.

Let us pray together:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come.

Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory, forever and ever.

Amen.

Amazing Grace

Amazing Grace, how sweet the sound.

That saved a wretch like me

I once was lost, but now am found.

Was blind, but now I see.

Long-term Memory

Writing about your life...

What was your favorite job or volunteer experience? Why did you enjoy it? Who did you work with? What tasks did you work on?

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue or green ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are approximately 20 lines visible. The paper appears to be a standard notebook page.[illegible]

Song of the Week

Rhinestone Cowboy

Glen Campbell

I've been walkin' these streets so long
Singin' the same old song
I know every crack in these dirty sidewalks of Broadway
Where hustle's the name of the game
And nice guys get washed away like the snow and the rain
There's been a load of compromisin'
On the road to my horizon
But I'm gonna be where the lights are shinin' on me

Like a rhinestone cowboy
Riding out on a horse in a star-spangled rodeo
Like a rhinestone cowboy
Getting cards and letters from people I don't even know
And offers comin' over the phone

Well, I really don't mind the rain
And a smile can hide all the pain
But you're down when you're ridin' the train that's takin' the long way
And I dream of the things I'll do
With a subway token and a dollar tucked inside my shoe
There'll be a load of compromisin'
On the road to my horizon
But I'm gonna be where the lights are shinin' on me

Like a rhinestone cowboy
Riding out on a horse in a star-spangled rodeo
Rhinestone cowboy
Gettin' cards and letters from people I don't even know
And offers comin' over the phone

Like a rhinestone cowboy
Riding out on a horse in a star-spangled rodeo

Like a rhinestone cowboy
Gettin' card and letters from people I don't even know

Like a rhinestone cowboy
Riding out on a horse in a star-spangled rodeo

Television

---

When did you get your first television set?

Do you recall how much you paid for your television?

What are your favourite programmes?

What was the most memorable event you watched on TV?

Watching TV was a family event, everyone would gather together around the television set to watch their favourite programmes. The BBC dominated TV from 1936 and was then joined by ITV in 1955. The Queen's Coronation in 1953 saw a huge rise in the sales of TV sets, as everyone wanted to watch this historic event.

As well as TV shutting down at midnight, TV also had to stop transmission between 6.00pm and 7.00pm. This policy was called "The Toddler Truce" - signalling the end of the children's TV schedule, before the evening programmes started. It gave parents the perfect opportunity to put their young children to bed.

An early popular panel game on TV was "What's My Line?". "Opportunity Knocks" presented by Hughie Green was also an enjoyed entertainment show. The soap lovers preferred the iconic long-running soap, "Coronation Street", tuning in to watch the razor-sharp tongued Ena Sharples in her trademark hairnet.

Being able to watch the World Cup in 1966 was a must for over 32 million people. Other popular events to watch included the Moon Landing in 1969 and Billie Jean King's triumph at the Wimbledon Women's Singles in 1967.

Dream Car Challenge

Pedal cars—miniature versions for kids—started out as toys for wealthy children, but they were widely available by the 1950s. Many of the toy cars had features just like the full-size models, including working lights, ragtops, whitewall tires, and hood ornaments. Today, an original 1955 Chevrolet pedal car would fetch about $1,750.

Did you have a pedal car?

what was your first Real car?
