Week 2

From Pastor Arlen:

Remember all of the things that you have to be thankful for today....

your family and friends.....

your health.....

your home.....

all of the countless blessings that God has given you over the years.

Let us pray together:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come.

Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory, forever and ever.

Amen.

John 3:16

For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son. That whosoever believeth in Him shall not perish but have everlasting life.

It's a Date

If only one piece of clothing could exemplify 1950s fashion for young women, it would be the poodle skirt. This full skirt was generally made of bright felt, with a poodle appliquéd to the lower section and a leash (often sparkly) winding up toward the waist. A sweater or blouse, scarf, ponytail, bobby socks, and saddle shoes most often completed the ensemble.

Song of the Week

Raindrops Keep Falling on My Head

B. J. Thomas

Raindrops are falling on my head
And just like the guy whose feet are too big for his bed
Nothing seems to fit
Those raindrops are falling on my head, they keep falling
So I just did me some talking to the sun
And I said I didn't like the way he got things done
Sleeping on the job
Those raindrops are falling on my head, they keep falling

But there's one thing I know
The blues they send to meet me
Won't defeat me, it won't be long
Till happiness steps up to greet me

Raindrops keep falling on my head
But that doesn't mean my eyes will soon be turning red
Crying's not for me
'Cause I'm never gonna stop the rain by complaining
Because I'm free
Nothing's worrying me

It won't be long till happiness steps up to greet me

Raindrops keep falling on my head
But that doesn't mean my eyes will soon be turning red
Crying's not for me
'Cause I'm never gonna stop the rain by complaining
Because I'm free
Nothing's worrying me

Jailhouse Jumble

Here's some Elvis trivia for you! His prison haircut in Jailhouse Rock (1957) was long a source of speculation among fans: Was his infamous ducktail actually cut? The truth is that wigs were used to represent the short haircut and the haircut when it was partially grown back. Plaster casts were made of Elvis's head to fit the wigs precisely and make them nearly impossible to detect.
